Summary of reasons
for classification:

The CD-Rom NRP Stimuli Full Set is classified as:
Unrestricted.

The CD-Rom was submitted by the Comptroller of Customs (Customs) under section 13(1)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act). Customs received the disc from the Department of Corrections. The disc will be used in an assessment system that measures deviant sexual arousal in convicted sex offenders.

The CD-Rom contains 160 digitally-created images of realistic-looking children, young persons and adults. The subjects in the images are not real people. In 80 images the subjects are nude and standing in natural, non-sexual poses. None of the images are reasonably capable of being regarded as sexual in nature.

There are no grounds for restricting the CD-Rom under the FVPC Act as it does not fall under sections 3(1), 3A or 3B of the FVPC Act. An unrestricted classification does not interfere with the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
